The End

2019 - 2020 Year Recap

This will definitely be a year we will forever remember. Never did we think that on March 13th, that would be the last time we would be together physically as a music department. Distance Learning Activities, Breezin' Thru Theory (sorry...), and Zoom calls have redefined our lives the last three months during these unprecedented times. Unfortunately, we were unable to have our winter competitive seasons for guard and drumline. We missed out on our final concert of the year, our 1st official Pops concert. We did not get our multiple playings of "Pomp and Circumstance."

So many things have changed, and it can be looked at that a lot was lost. I have a different perspective and state of mind, causing me to cherish the moments and memories we have shared, and to make the most of the time we do have together. For now, there is no greater time than the present.

Class of 2020. You are definitely a resilient bunch of individuals who will continue to grow. I am truly sad to see you go, and I know you will continue to make us proud. We are lucky to have been a part of your path, and I know the legacy you have left behind at the La Quinta High School Music Department will continue to stay strong. I wish you the best in all your future endeavors.

For everyone else, I am glad that we have more opportunities to work together, and I am excited for the fun challenges that lie ahead of us! We will stand united, "together as one."

The magic word is "create!"

The music department has given me more than I ever could've imagined. I got to continue playing alto saxophone, see what it was like to be first chair violinist, try out tenor saxophone, play a bunch of different percussion instruments, and ultimately focus on piano. I am so lucky to have experienced orchestra, marching band, indoor winds, concert band, and winter drumline all at LQ. The biggest gift Mr. S. has given to me was the opportunity to conduct our groups. The three years as a drum major definitely tested my sanity, but it also gave me insight as to how run a band on the educational level while still being able to enjoy it as a student. However, I was still had the opportunity to hone the craft of being a serious concert conductor by expressing my musicality (and TEMPO!) in front of an ensemble, instead of just being a human metronome. This program taught me how to find the balance in artistry, leadership, and humanity. I learned how to better express my musical visions and interpretations, but most of all, CREATE them in the first place! Things were always weird for me because I couldn't really fit in with the student body, and at the same time I was some weird educator-figure to my OWN FRIENDS (because of band/orchestra and my job), but the music department let me turn that weird curse into the best gift: a beautiful experience that has given me so much insight as a prospective musician, conductor, and educator.

Thank you so much, Mr. S., and thank you so much to EVERYONE for letting me "practice" on your LOL! <3 Please take advantage of all the time and musical opportunities you have here! It goes by so much faster than you think...

Katherine Dinh

Here was my schedule for my success and some pointers for my underclassmen friends out there. VVV

Monday: BRING YOUR LAMBORGHINI TO SCHOOL DAY

please, if you have a ferrari that is ok too but just know most people own lambos. to not be the odd one out, i suggest you either buy a lambo or bring a book case full of KNOWLEDGE if you own a ferrari but its ok if you do just know that you will be the butt end of jokes and snarky remarks thanks.

Tuesday: TOON TOWN TUESDAYS

obviously its a minimum to be at least have 50 taff to play downtown, make sure your toontown character always has a minimum of 1000 jellybeans, and fish in the playground for two hours a day to ensure you have enough jellybeans. this is where i would say do ur econ homework but theres a level 8 bossocg coming my way

Wednesday: FULL HOUSE/HOW I MET YOUR MOTHER MARATHON

Wednesdays are personally my favorite days of the weeks (sorry tuesdays) but i love watching full house imao bob saggets so funny hes always looking out for his daughters

Thursday: MIME AND GTAS DAY

My favorite day of the week honestly, everyone is required to bring their ps3s and have one GIANT LAN party at LQ. Please be prepared to be exposed to prepubescent children since those are the only people who play gta5 on ps3 they ruin my life STOP DESTROYING MY CAR IM ARK FOR LIKE 2 MINUTES AND ITS DEAD DO U LIKE PAYING MY 20K INSURANCE KID NO U DONT AND UR POOR BUT ITS OK CUZ U CAN AFFORD A $200 ROCKET LAUNCHER today is when i play neopets please remember to feed your neopets everyday but today is just a day where we play all day so please bring ur tomodachi life cartridge for nintendo 3ds and bring ur lolipopps kiddos.

Friday: NEOPETS N CHILL

Saturday: ONLINE FLASH GAMES MARATHON

We play flash games like boxhead and stuff online (remember interactive buddy?) yeah on like pog.com or y8.com or addicitingames.com or nick.com or disney.com thanks this is my favorite favorite day of the week bc this is where i do all my ap bio notes and all my ap lit homework but before i do that i get a jar of peanut butter and some celery sticks and get ready to do homework for 12 hours straight before i pass out from dehydration from the peanut butter.

Sunday: PB AND SUNDAY

take life a quarter mile at a time

Bill Hoang

These past three years in marching band and indoor drumline have been the greatest years of my life. I wouldn't trade all the fun memories for anything. Thank you for making my senior year a very memorable one.

Thuan (Crystal) Hoang

I had such an amazing time in the music program. Orchestra was a relaxing class for me and gave me time to prepare for the rest of the school day. It was my anchor because even though a lot of things were changing, I could be sure that Mr. S and the class would continue to be amazing and be there for me to catch my breath. I am sad that my time with orchestra was cut short, but I will always treasure the memories it gave me. Some fun facts: I enjoy sleeping and eating in my free time. I look like a hamster, act like a fish, and have three monkeys for brothers 😊 what bar are we on?

Kalisa Huynh

Minh-Hanh Huynh

Thank you Mr. Sebastian for being an awesome music director; you're one of the main reasons why I stayed in the orchestra for 4 years. Also, your hair looks really good right now. Of course, thank you to all my orchestra buddies for working so hard. You guys inspire me to put my best foot forward and to continue playing music beyond high school. ADIOS!!

Congratulations, Honker!

You have been accepted into Clown State University for the Spring 2020 Semester! This makes you a member of the Honker class of 2023! We are so excited to have you here at CSU 🤔

You were such a clown that we had to accept you! Your major is currently Clownology. If you would like to change your major, that sucks, you can't! 🤔 We have put together a nifty to-do lost before you arrive in Chugwater this January.

Dear Lawrence,

Thank you for applying to Clown State University. After a thorough review of your application, we regret to inform you that we will be unable to offer you admission for the Spring 2020 term.

Within our clownprehensive review process, we take great care in the consideration of every application. Admissions officers review each application and carefully balance many factors including but not limited to honkage, pie-throwing, flower-squirting, clown makeup, wig color, size of shoes, and ability to scare children. We are honored to receive so many applications from such talented clowns.

We wish you every success in going to your dream circus.

Sincerely,
Undergraduate Admissions

Leyna Nguyen

My 4 years in high school and the music program truly shaped who I am today and I do not regret a single minute or even second of my experiences and memories that I've made. I watched everyone and most importantly, myself grow each year and I am excited for everyone to start their new journeys after high school. I want to thank everyone for making my high school years amazing and best wishes, I LOVE YOU CLASS OF 2020!!!

Phuc (Fiona) Nguyen

Joining orchestra helped give me another family and more time to spend with my friends while strengthening my music skills. I wish I had joined earlier and not during junior year because orchestra has been so fun!! Even though I can't wake up early, zero period helps me be awake and helps me start off the day with music. I didn't really get to say goodbye that morning but thank you Mr. S and my 0 PD fam for the best year ever and goodbye guys!! :'(

Sydney Nguyen

it's Kaachi 😊

Trish Nguyen

Holy crap I'm getting old since I'm finally writing one of these instead of reading them. I don't really know what to say but I'm going to miss being a part of this program that made me suffer and cry for 4 years. Our time together may have been cut short but hopefully we'll run into each other someday but please don't make it soon.

Vincent Nguyen

It all starts with a goal in mind. Just because you don't master it in a day doesn't mean you can't achieve it. That mindset is the only thing stopping you from reaching your goal.

Honestly, can't even express the gratitude I have with music. Like so many things, its not about learning and playing all those notes, chords, time/key signatures, ya-da-ya-da-ya-da; it's about learning and expressing all those emotions you see on that paper (or mind!) and letting the world listen to what you have to say, no matter (if any) attention.

My parents, for forcing to enjoy music (thank my maker I'm stubborn). Fernando, Jennifer, Colleen, proud of the music we made in the "golden" years. Mr. Martin, for starting the dough (teach). Mrs. Bissell, for molding the dough (experience). Mr. Sebastian, for baking the dough (opportunity). Ethan, gonna miss your puns (and that determining gaze of yours, keep hitting those drums (please let me know if that violin is for sale)). Robin, know you're still watching me set up those chairs and making music (really wanna know your opinion on Star Wars, save me a seat at Segerstrom once more). Jenny, glad to stick with you for somewhat helping orchestra through its unusual times (yeah, no, I stopped at French 3). Thomas, criticize me again and I'll stuff your bow up (thanks for the candy). Ashley, giving me an outlook in reality and aiding me along the way (cheers). Gavin, always stick with what you have in your heart (and you'll run far). Katelyn, always fun to talk with (if that library still needs help, they can give us a call).

C'est la vie.

1. In a medium-size bowl, mix together ground pork, Woodear mushroom, vermicelli noodles, green onions, white/yellow onion, sugar, black pepper, salt and oyster sauce. Set aside.
2. Thaw out the egg roll wrappers if frozen. Separate into individual sheets by pulling them apart slowly to prevent tearing. There will be one side of the sheet with a hard edge (the side that connects all the egg roll wrappers together). Tear or cut off that hard edge so that all sides are the same thickness.
3. Use about 2 tablespoons of filling for each egg roll and follow the step-by-step picture instructions below on how to wrap egg rolls.
In a wok or tall skillet, heat vegetable oil to 325°F. Fry in small batches for 2-3 minutes or until egg rolls are golden brown. Transfer egg rolls onto a wired rack to drain off excess oil.
4. Serve immediately with Vietnamese Fish sauce dipping sauce (Nuoc Mam Cham). You can eat the egg rolls by themselves or wrapped with lettuce and assorted Vietnamese herbs such as sorrel (rau chua), fish mint (diep ca), Vietnamese coriander (rau ram), and perilla (tia to). Leftover egg rolls can be frozen and deep-fried straight from the freezer. Frozen egg rolls take about 6-7 minutes to cook.

The disrespect radiates off of the lamination of these pages. I'll miss some of you (jk I'll miss a lot of you), while others may just be a passing thought as I flip to the next chapter. If my name was not written above would you have remembered me? Truly? Flipping towards the end of this book in the trilogy of my life I would like to announce my regrets. If you like a sport, play it even if you're already busy, make time. If you're interested in a subject, take it even if you're scared of failing the class, it's okay. If you want to play another instrument, play it even if you would be neglecting the expensive instrument you already bought the previous year lmao. If you feel like no one really knows you or you want to connect with others, go to those events, join those clubs even if you know you won't be able to participate in everything. If you notice your grades aren't doing well and you're stressing out too much, ask for help, we've all been there. If you feel lonely and sad, talk to someone even if you feel like they'll laugh at you (tip is to go to a trusted gc and if someone does laugh at you, block their behinds, or actually delete them entirely!). Keep the ones, who always treat your little worries and complaints seriously, close to your heart and you'll always have a friend. This is your last few years of free education, take advantage of it and enjoy life whether it may be through tears or smiles. (When writing this I didn't realize this was a for band only thing lmao, any who, if you read/listened till the end kudos to you.)

Vegan Brownies 🍫

Ingredients:

- 4 tablespoons ground flax
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup vegan butter (earth balance brand), melted *see instructions
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 cup brown sugar, lightly packed
- 1 tablespoon pure vanilla extract
- 1 cup all purpose flour
- 1 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 cup non-dairy chocolate chips OR roughly chopped chocolate pieces

Instructions:

Make the flax eggs by stirring the ground flax and water in a small bowl. Set aside to thicken. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F and line a 7 x 11 pan with parchment paper.
Melt the vegan butter (earth balance brand preferred), and measure 1/2 cup. I do this by microwaving the vegan butter in a glass measuring cup, in 30 second intervals, until melted.
In a large bowl, whisk the melted vegan butter and sugars together. Add the flax eggs and vanilla, whisk until evenly combined.
Over the same large bowl, sift in the flour and cocoa powder. Add the salt and baking powder and stir with a large wooden spoon until just combined, do not over mix.
Fold in half of the chocolate chips. Pour the batter into the prepared pan and smooth out the top with a spoon or your hands. Sprinkle the rest of the chocolate chips on top of the batter.
Bake for 35-40 minutes. The brownies may still be bubbling and not look done, but they will firm up a lot as they cool.
Remove from the oven, allow to cool in the pan for 15 minutes, then pull the brownies out, using the parchment paper and let cool for another 15-30 minutes before slicing and serving.

Band was probably, if not the most memorable experience of high school for me. There were a lot of ups and downs with the people around me but that was all to be expected. Tears were shed but that just adds to the experience in my opinion. It's definitely tough love but the program helps you grow exponentially as a person!

How to be a student at La Quinta High School(follow the directions):

1. know a lot of asians
2. have asian friends
3. understand an asian language somewhat (even if you're not asian)
4. ALWAYS take AP classes even if you can't
5. do not make mental health a priority
6. ACADEMICS is the priority
7. go to school even if you're sick and get everyone else sick as well
8. don't join football
9. join volleyball!!!!
10. always be broke because you buy too much boba
11. feel weirded out when you are out of an "all asian" area and feel like everyone is judging you and being racist
12. LAST BUT NOT LEAST never do homework #LQclutch

ADVICE/WORDS OF WISDOM FROM CLASS OF 2020

- JT: Practice makes permanent
- TT: For the underclassman, really cherish the short time that you have left in high school. You may think that you still have a long way to go, but I promise you that it'll be over before you know it so spend it wisely. Even though I wasn't able to experience the last few months of my senior year, all the memories that I've made thus far have definitely made my high school experience worthwhile. Lastly, have fun doing the things you love while also trying new things.
- VT: This is going to sound terrible.. but words of wisdom, this is high school the "supposed" best four years of your life. Don't throw away the fun and study 24/7. Sneak out! Have fun! it's okay to forget about your studies and put yourself first. we all deserve to live a little and make sure we're not regretting or wasting a single second on something that makes you feel not happy.
- EN: Please stay at home I never want to breeze thru theory again. But also learning how to manage your time is so important to your success in the future so start now while you can!!!
- CT: Make the most of your time in high school. It'll be gone before you know it :(
- EP: uh, keep practicing and don't suck, cause if you suck then you suck.
- KN: Allow yourself to make friends. There's no point in being intimidating all the time
- PN: Enjoy your high school experience and make the most out of it! Enjoy prom and school events:)) But don't forget grades do matter to colleges! And join Orchestra 😊 And to the non-seniors in 0 PD, I really enjoyed getting to know everyone more and really wish we had more time together as a group :((Make us seniors proud, kiddos!!!!!!
- BH: Keep pushing yourself and practice with others! Practicing by yourself is good but some helpful critique from others is even better.
- LN: Make the most out of high school and don't take it for granted! It will go by super fast and make sure to just appreciate the people around you, especially your friends, classmates, and teachers.
- CN: Get enough sleep.
- TH: Keep on working hard, stay in the music program, and take breaks.
- TN: Learn how to cry on the inside
- AD: Don't take the musical opportunities here at LQ for granted, and don't forget to explore outside ensembles while you still have time! My biggest regret is not writing all my musical composition ideas out. This goes for any art: if you have an idea, WRITE IT OUT! Bringing a creation to life will never invalidate it. It will only make it STRONGER. It will breathe real air and evoke real thoughts. That's what makes creativity so powerful.
- AG: don't be try hards.
- CN: have fun and do your college essays early
- VN: Please know your part, and actually play instead of letting the upperclassmen play everything :P
- CN: Alexander Nguyen play more call of duty
- MS: Work hard and stay focused, but at the same time make sure to savor your younger years and enjoy being a teenager as much as possible :)
- MH: Don't sleep; that way, you'll be able to arrive to 0 period on time.
- LM: Don't forget your dot books.
- JV: Animals Rule.
- JC: Don't lose yourself and who you are in pursuit of something that won't make you happy. Aim to accomplish your own goals and passions, and help others along the way to meet what they strive for. Be kind to yourself just like you would be kind to others, and remember, no matter how selfless you are, it's okay to take a breath and put yourself first once in a while.
- AN: as much as you hate school don't take it for granted :((don't worry too much about your grades and live your high school experiences to the fullest.
- ER: Never ever give up. Even if they drown you, bully you, reject you, discourage you, never ever give up. Those who are loyal (and yes, stubborn) at good heart will be rewarded greatly in the end. Sophomores, don't flunk this year out. Trust me, its a whole different level of troublesome blistering situations you want to deal with. Oh, and someone from 0 Period has to commit to arriving at time and setting up the room.
- DN: Just go for it.
- JC: Maintain a good GPA
- KN: Study but have fun.
- SV: Step 1: Turn on brain; Step 2: Count; Step 3: Put feet to Counts; Step 4: Learn music
- LN: Your life isn't centered on one thing like band. Don't think it is.
- SN: I'm pretty sure y'all heard of this so many times now but perform as if it's your last chance in life. Some of you guys already experienced two major events getting cancelled and the pain that came from it. But most importantly, always have fun no matter what! That's the reason why we love this program right?? Try to show those coming in the program how fun it is to be in band 😊
- KD: sleep more and hang out with your friends more, studying isn't everything
- VT: DO NOT DATE WITHIN BAND PERIOD. :)
- KB: Section leaders can be wrong; do not be afraid to speak up and share your thoughts. Also, don't take so many courses that you can no longer be in the class period.
- IS: Don't quit because one season in band I managed to make more memories than I did for the past four years.
- WT: Remember that you can do anything with friends by your side.
- KH: The chimes will scuff all your ankles nobody is safe
- AT: If you're gonna be in band just join the marching band. Concert band is not a place for the introverted.
- VP: Everyone is inevitably going to face difficult times, whether it be regarding band or school. Don't be afraid to talk to your instructor, teacher, or another student. It's better to have another outlet of support rather than to try dealing with things on your own. Do your homework, stay in school, and don't procrastinate. Drink water and less boba.
- PN: Don't worry too much about anything and just enjoy the moment
- VP: Work and Study hard, but more importantly, have some fun!
- AZ: 60/40. Always.

FAVORITE MEMORY

IN THE INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC DEPARTMENT

(Class of 2020)

- JT: Performing at Don Walsh for the first and last time with everyone.
- TT: My favorite memory in the Instrumental Music Department would have to be playing for Mrs. Halstead's retirement party. The experience was different than anything I've ever done in the program, playing background music and being able to see most of the teachers in the same room. I enjoyed playing with a few of my other classmates as we were all able to loosen up a bit as compared to playing in a classroom or a concert.
- VT: This whole senior year in the music program is my favorite memory, I've never bonded with people in orchestra so much before and I absolutely cherish the 0 period class of 2019-2020.
- EN: When we tried to catch Remy with rat noises in the FOM room
- CT: Listening to any of Mr. S's stories 😊
- EP: That one time i dropped my drum in front of chino hills high school and we got first place
- KN: Second year of championships with WBA: the pool was awesome
- PN: When the entire 0 PD chat started sending TikToks about the 1st semester final excerpts or just orchestra/0 period related things. And then seeing Mr. S talk about them as he first opened them 😊
- BH: My favorite memory was when we had eight percussionists for graduation but we only needed three.
- LN: I appreciated every memory I had with the music department, especially when it is filled with never-ending laughter. However, I would say my favorite memories/time is when Mr. Sebastian would tell his stories and class would go by fast and everyone would enjoy listening to them.
- CN: Night time bus rides!
- TH: My favorite memory was making pac-man costumes with my section.
- TN: When we got to perform State of Mind despite champs being canceled and got to hang out in the second hotel
- AD: EVERY TIME I GOT TO CONDUCT ANY PIECE FOR ANY ENSEMBLE PERIOD. SO FUN. GREAT BONDING. AMAZING LEARNING EXPERIENCE.
- AG: when ms.M came and co-taached.
- CN: When we got Joe's Italian Ice and then tacos after a competition
- VN: There wasn't a specific time but I enjoyed sectionals my freshman and sophomore year the most because we had everyone there. The seniors at the time Matthew and Tiffany made it enjoyable (as well as the others too but it was my last year with them)
- CN: Hanging out after rehearsals, and messing around with my friends
- MS: When the entire winds section raided Red Castle after RCC in my senior year.
- MH: Looking at Mr.S's spiky hair.
- LM: My favorite memory is the time we went to Bakersfield for WBA Championships which later got cancelled and the night before, we charged up an Ouija board in the moonlight and live-streamed it. That night we got about 4 different prank calls and Christine "pretended" to be possessed. We were also the hotel's on-call bed bug sprayer.
- JC: It's really hard to pick just one, but playing the ouija board in our hotel room really takes the cake. We were really dedicated, charging the board in the moonlight and spraying clean linen Febreze in place of lavender blessing, to Christine acting possessed and us believing that champs being canceled the next day was all on the curse that the ghosts put on us. Thank you to FOM and Mr. S for letting us bring a ouija board into the hotel room :D
- AN: My favorite memory was probably skipping class for festival or sitting in the burning sun for graduation.
- ER: Conducting "Send in the Clowns". To see that it would be later used for a particular clown later in the future and to know that I conducted with somewhat of an idea of it (such tragedy is life), I say its a beautiful memory.
- DN: I am just happy about being with friends and struggling together. It made it a lot more enjoyable.
- JC: marching in the rain Going Home season
- SV: Winning 2nd and 1st but also the "How do I play this game" era and the "don't turn around" trap
- LN: Fresno during Clouds
- SN: My favorite memory during my time at the music departments are the fall competitions during my freshman year! That season was one of the most memorable as it was so fun to perform in the show. The only thing I hated about it was the hair 🤔
- KD: The first trip to champs finding that awesome yoga cat
- VT: The first day of 10th grade after summer camps, the first person I interacted with at school was Katherine and all she said was, "Oh my god! Vicky, you're brown!!!"
- KB: Any final run of a show I've been in.
- IS: Bus rides and the time before a performance while we waited to go on the field. Everyone just supports one another and empathizes with the new comers.
- WT: Playing dirt ball with everyone!
- KH: Whenever rhythm section goofed around mid rehearsal
- VP: My favorite memory is when Bricia won the jackpot at Adventure Park on the Fresno trip and I used the tickets to get myself a stingray plushie. Also, I loved all the naps I took in the guard closet before rehearsal. -3
- PN: The time we went to Fresno the first time and watch the bee movie in three different languages.
- VP: Honestly my entire freshman year and every time Mirabelle Le does something super crazy.
- AZ: My favorite memory was my first marching show in my freshman year. I did mess up and could have definitely done better, but the pure rush of adrenaline and fun I had at that show was what kept me back year after year into the program. It was an experience I could not even put into words.

TO THE CLASS OF 2020 FROM THE CLASS OF 2020

- JT: This year was super fun. Thanks for playing lots of great music with me and I hope y'all continue to do so in college.
- TT: For my seniors, I'm incredibly sad that we have to leave like this. From my perspective, I believe that our class has had the most difficulties transitioning from year to year, whether it be with new learning programs, constant constructions, cancellation of events, etc. Everyone has shown that we were resilient and took these obstacles head on---and now we're facing the biggest one of all. Afterwards, I know that each and every one of you will go on to do great things in the future and show the world what the Class of 2020 came to be despite all the hardships. I will definitely cherish the last four years.
- VT: MY FELLOW SENIORS!!! Congratulations on ending the year strong. This was definitely a HUGE bump down the road and we won't be getting ending we wanted, but that's okay. Surround yourselves with the people you love, your family and friends. Don't see this time as a time of despair and loss, but instead look on the bright side and see this as a time to really find yourself, to love yourself, and to see that you matter. Being focused on studies and everything made us all forget who we are, now it's time to find ourselves again.
- EN: I'll miss y'all 😭😭😭
- CT: We ended high school on a rough note, but always keep pushing and remember that you're not alone in this.
- EP: hello
- PN: I hope you guys find your place in wherever your future leads you to. I know you guys will do amazing things and you all have so much potential for success! Thank you for letting me be your class officer as well as your fellow violinist and teaching me that there is a joy in playing an instrument at 7 AM while Mr. S tells stories and making music-related tiktoks. Love u guys <3
- BH: Hey guys, although we're dealing with tough times, we're all here for each other. Class of 2020 has gone through the worst and still survived. We got this!
- LN: Always fight on and remember that it will get better. I don't know if the pandemic is over by this time some of us may be reading this, but just know, we deserved better, we deserved the WORLD. Our senior year may have been cut short, but I dwell about it too much and continue on. Every individual of class of 2020 is amazing and I can all see their bright futures glowing in them.
- CN: I hope I would see some of you again. Some emphasized more than others.
- TH: I love all of you and you will all do amazing things in the future!!
- TN: We made it :D
- AD: Thank you so much for accepting me these past four years and for letting me experiment on you as a developing leader/conductor/teacher. The insight and multiple reality checks you have given me are absolutely indispensable to my life. Thank you for your support through all the years and for having my back more than any other class. I am so grateful that we crossed paths and got to know each other as people outside of music.
- AG: make good choices.
- CN: Rip our senior year but we should hang out sometime lmao
- CN: Good luck
- MS: I'm gonna miss you guys :(I wish you all the best of luck in the future and will forever cherish the memories we made together. I hope you and your families stay safe and that we stay in touch!
- MH: If you make a lot of money in the future, just remember I was in orchestra with you.
- LM: I'll miss spending my summers with you guys 😊😞
- JV: o.o
- JC: zoom c/o 2020 y'all we groovin
- AN: imyg ;((
- ER: It's been a pleasure. What else is there to say?
- DN: Love ya guys! <3 Let's hang out in the future.
- JC: Don't do drugs and don't drink alcohol and you will be okay
- KN: Be Happy!
- SV: PEACE
- LN: quarantine really rough
- SN: Thank you for all the memories for the last four years!
- KD: we out of here boyz
- VT: I am glad we have all finished our 4 year sentences! Amazing! Wow! Never done before!
- KB: Don't fail your college courses, I guess lol.
- IS: I really admire all the effort you put in your performances and just being patient towards the newbies
- WT: Even though I didn't talk alot, I love you guys so much!
- AT: It was nice knowing you guys for these 4 years. I never really talked a lot but it was still fun in it's own way.
- VP: Add me on Roblox (adorablepeachy22) and Animal Crossing (SW-2117-7298-1999)
- PN: Don't worry about it
- VP: Peace out bean sprout!
- AZ: Buckle up buttercups, because we are in for a wild ride!
